Re: March on Washington
August 28, 1963

[REDACTED] b7d
[REDACTED], 109th Intelligence Corps b7C
Group, Richmond, Virginia, was advised of the above information at 6:30 PM on July 27, 1963.

"The Richmond Times-Dispatch" in its issue dated July 28, 1963, in reporting on the above meeting, stated that the letter-writing campaign to Virginia Congressmen "unveiled a new direct action program" adopted by the NAACP.

The article stated that the program "works on the basis of an old fashioned chain letter...and we (NAACP) are visualizing a chain reaction".

The article reported the following as the contents of the letter suggested to be sent to the Congressmen:

"I have not decided whether I shall demonstrate or not. However, my prayers are with those who do. I do not know whether I can stand jail without bail, but I admire those who can. I am not sure that I will be non-violent if I should be attacked for demanding to be treated with simple human dignity. I certainly hope and pray that no relative or friend of mine will be shot in the back as was Medgar Evers, the NAACP Field Secretary in Jackson, Mississippi.

"I can vote! I will vote against you, if you fail to support the President's Civil Rights Program."

A characterization of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference is attached hereto.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)

- The November 19, 1960 issue of "The Richmond Times-Dispatch" reported that approximately sixty Negro church, professional and lay leaders throughout Virginia met on November 18, 1960 in Petersburg, Virginia and organized the Virginia Christian Leadership Conference (VCLC) for the purpose of "bringing about civil rights for all".

It was pointed out that VCLC is an affiliate of the SCLC of Atlanta, Georgia.

The purpose of SCLC was reported to "redeem the soul of America by creating the beloved community through organization, by consent of population, for the purpose of creative protest by education, training, developing leadership based on Christian nonviolent principles".

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

[REDACTED]

The "Newark Evening News", Newark, New Jersey, dated July 27, 1963, carried an article captioned, "Name co-chairmen for Capitol March".

This article reflects State Assemblyman George C. Richardson of Newark, New Jersey, and Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, a Paterson, New Jersey, housewife as co-chairmen of a committee of seven persons who will direct a contingent of demonstrators from Northern New Jersey in a "march on Washington" on August 28, 1963, in support of President Kennedy's Civil Rights Program. The committee also includes Reverend John W. P. Collier, Pastor of the Israel Memorial AME Church, Newark, New Jersey, Everett Lattimore, First Ward Councilman, Plainfield, New Jersey, and Vincente K. Tibbs, Fourth Ward Councilman, Englewood, New Jersey. They plan for the transportation of about 1000 persons.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON,
AUGUST 28, 1963

The July 30, 1963 issue of the Cincinnati Enquirer, a daily newspaper published in Cincinnati, Ohio, contained an article on page 32 captioned, "Cincinnati Clergymen Poised For March on Washington". This article indicated as follows:

Reverend Walter Beck, Chairman of the Cincinnati Council of Churches Special Commission on Religion and Race, stated his group's meeting on July 29, 1963, to recruit clergymen for the March on Washington was a tremendous success. Reverend Beck indicated that about 300 persons filled the Carmel Presbyterian Church, 3549 Reading Road, to hear speakers representing Protestant Clergy, Roman Catholic laymen, Congress of Racial Equality, and the Lay Negro Community.

Beck stated that although the meeting stressed participation in the scheduled March on Washington, August 28, 1963, that this march was not the prime purpose behind the special commission.

Beck indicated that the commission was finding out the identity of people who are interested in making the march, further that at a meeting to be held on July 30, 1963, specific plans can be made.

Reverend Beck promised those in attendance at the meeting that before Norman Hill, a New York representative of the Congress of Racial Equality, leaves town, he would be able to announce some details of the planned march. Reverend Beck stated, however, that his commission was interested in passing national legislation, passing local legislation and changing segregated patterns in local congregations.

ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATION
KEEP ENVELOPE ATTACHED

24 July 1963

John F. Kennedy
President
The White House or U. S. Capitol
Washington 25, D. C.

Sir:

In view of the contemplated march of 100,000 negroes to or in Washington, D. C. on or about 26 August 1963, it is incumbent upon you to issue an executive order granting all Civil Service Federal Employees leave on day of aforementioned march so they may avoid coming in contact with the rabble.

There is no such thing as "peaceful demonstration" in these negro actions creating public disturbances and riots. The millions of dollars cost necessitated by the use of police, troops etc to quell the negro uprisings and the damages occurring from them should be paid out of assessments to each and every negro and a tax refund equivalent to such cost be given to every white person who has or will be subjected to this negro maliciousness.

Their use of Churches for meeting to plan these disturbances, and their so-called praying at public points is nothing short of blasphemy and sacrilege and a mockery to religion. Such "demonstrations" of any sort by the negroes come only from defective minds.

To make a point Mr. Kennedy, if you, Core members or anyone want to mix, live with or associate with negroes, personally, that is up to you, but you cannot make laws, or force the rest of us to do so against our wishes. Individually and as a whole the negroes bear the "curse of Cain" and it will never be eliminated and your efforts and those of your brother Robert Kennedy if continued will bring disaster and bloodshed upon America, to say the least. Neither you and/or the negroes will ever succeed in destroying the white race.

Either you provide the means of keeping the negroes away from us, or see that nothing is done to prevent us from protecting our individual liberties, homes, property etc. in preventing trespass, molestation, annoyance and other harassments.

Hoping this will jolt you out of your complacency, Sir, I am

Reflecting the opinions of millions of Americans of white race

Although it appears national leaders of the March on Washington are still in the process of formulating organization and plans, and although only the first edition of the manual setting forth instructions for local groups has been issued, Washington Field by return airtel should furnish the results of over-all surveys, liaison contacts with local officials, and plans arrived at to date for the securing of information concerning the March and for the establishment of coverage of activities in connection with the demonstration.

It appears the National Office of the March on Washington will have to coordinate with its D. C. representatives, specific arrangements and plans for the demonstration itself. New York, through established sources, confidential sources and/or informants, should be alert to keep the Bureau and Washington Field advised of the planning of the National Office.

Washington Field should advise what liaison arrangements and sources have been established with local leaders who represent the March on Washington.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE (u)

The August 3, 1963, edition of "The Daily Oklahoman", an established newspaper published in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, contained an article entitled "New President Wanted; Gen. Walker Hits At Mike, Bellmon" (u)

The article, in essence, states as follows: (u)

Former Major General Edwin A. Walker charged Friday in Oklahoma City that Senator Mike Monroney "Wouldn't know a Communist if he were eating breakfast with him." OKLAHOMA

The criticism came during an informal press conference held by speakers attending the fifth annual Christian Crusade at the Skirvin Tower Hotel in Oklahoma City.

Walker's remark brought laughter from other speakers present, including Billy James Hargis, crusade director, retired Major George Racey Jordan, president of the Toronto Gold Market, Limited, and Brigadier General Richard B. Moran, retired, Kerrville, Texas.

Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, was not present.

With respect to Governor Bellmon, Walker said the entire group of Christian Crusade participants present was glad Bellmon was elected. Walker added "But he (the governor) said the other day the John Birch Society is leading the attack against Goldwater." He said the governor had better do his homework.

With respect to supporting a presidential candidate, the speakers declined to name a man, indicating their emphasis was not on a man but on a cause.

Billy James Hargis said he believed the racial unrest was being instigated and exploited by Communists. He suggested leaders on both sides should sit down at the local level and negotiate, without any international or federal intervention.

Walker said that Communists are the inspiration behind "all racial disorder, all racial riots, in all disorder, and breakdowns, all riots" from Africa to Mississippi to Laos.

He said the planned mass Negro march in Washington, D.C., is "Mr. Kennedy's march, led by the administration against the Congress."

The article also contains a statement by Jordan warning that Russia is now on a "gold ruble" standard, seeking to replace the U. S. dollar as the world's monetary measuring stick. He said "the quickest way to wreck this country is to break the financial integrity of the dollar."

Also present at the conference was Luis V. Manrara, Miami, Florida, president of The Truth About Cuba Committee, Inc.

This article states that approximately 1,000 persons are expected to attend its sessions, which end Sunday, August 4, 1963.

NEW PRESIDENT WANTED

Gen. Walker Hits At Mike, Bellmon

Sen. Mike Monroney "wouldn't know a Communist if he were eating breakfast with him," former Maj. Gen. Edwin Walker charged Friday in Oklahoma City.

The criticism came during an informal press conference held by speakers attending the fifth annual Christian Crusade at the Skirvin Tower Hotel.

Walker's remark brought laughter from other speakers present, including Billy James Hargis, Crusade director, retired Maj. George Racey Jordan, president of the Toronto Gold Market, Ltd., and Brig. Gen. Richard B. Moran, retired, Kerrville, Texas.

Not present was the Crusade's keynote speaker, Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, whose plane was delayed in Tulsa. Gov. Bellmon also drew Walker's attack, though Walker said the "entire group" of Christian Crusade participants present was glad Bellmon was elected.

"But he (the governor) said the other day the John Birch Society is leading the attack against Goldwater."

"I think your governor had better do his homework," Walker added.

Asked if there were a presidential candidate the Crusade would support, speakers declined to name a man.

"Our emphasis is on a cause, not a man," Hargis said. "We don't like dictators and we don't like to put all our hopes on one man."

Walker said he would be for "the best American."

Dr. Charles Poling, Arizona minister who said he is a long-time friend of Barry Goldwater, said there was "no one here wise enough to name a candidate now."

Getting a new president would solve the nation's racial troubles, Walker said, calling Kennedy's proposed civil rights bill a "social rights" bill.

Hargis said he believed the racial unrest was being instigated and exploited by Communists.

"Leaders on both sides should sit down at the local level and negotiate, without any international or federal intervention," he suggested.

Discussing Communists, Walker said they are the inspiration behind "all racial disorder, all racial riots, in all disorder, all breakdowns, all riots" from Africa to Mississippi to Laos.

He said the planned mass Negro march in Washington, D. C., is "Mr. Kennedy's march, led by the administration against the Congress."

Jordan, who said he witnessed the shipping of uranium and U. S. currency engraving plates to Russia during World War II, warned that Russia now is on a "gold ruble" standard, seeking to replace the U. S. dollar as the world's monetary measuring stick.

"Fiscal alcoholics and compulsive spenders in Washington" are responsible for intentionally taking the purchasing power of the dollar down, he said.

"They want to turn this into a one-world action under the United Nations," he said.

"The quickest way to wreck this country is to break the financial integrity of the dollar," Jordan said.

Also present at Friday's conference was Louis V. Manrara, Miami, Fla., president of The Truth About Cuba Committee, Inc.

The Crusade is expected to draw about 1,000 persons during its sessions which end Sunday.

For information of the Los Angeles Office, the August 2, 1963 issue of the "Morning Freiheit", New York City Yiddish language newspaper, page 1, column 2, contained a news item filed at Hollywood, California, 8/1/63, entitled "Hollywood Stars in Washington March." The article read actors CHARLESTON HESTON, MARLON BRANDO, TONY CURTIS, MEL FERRER, TONY FRANCIOSA, PETER BROWN, BURT LANCASTER, and Director BILLY WILDER announced today that they will march in Washington this month to support the proposed legislation for Civil Rights.

"The Delegation held a meeting at the home of HESTON to work out plans for the march and issued a statement that the actors will march in Washington on August 28, to express our support of the legislation concerning Civil Rights which is now before the Congress."

The statement said further: "We shall march because we consider the developments during the summer of 1963 as the most important we have ever experienced and we want to be a part of these developments and of this

Re Bureau airtel to Albany, dated 7/18/63.

Enclosed for the Bureau are eight copies of letterhead memorandum reflecting article in "The Newark Evening News" concerning the March On Washington.

"The Newark Evening News", dated 8/5/63, reflected that over fifteen hundred persons were expected to leave Northern New Jersey for the March On Washington.

These individuals plan on taking bus and rail transportation to Washington. Tickets will be sold at barber shops and beauty parlors, and proprietors will be asked to close on 8/28/63.

Mayors in New Jersey area will be asked to proclaim 8/28/63 as "Freedom Day".

Six volunteers have been enlisted so far to walk to Washington to leave New Jersey a week ahead of the planned caravan which will travel mainly by buses.

A copy of letterhead memorandum has been forwarded to the 108th INTC Group, Region II, Post Office Building, Newark, New Jersey.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Newark, New Jersey

August 5, 1963

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963

"The Newark Evening News", dated August 5, 1963, reflected an article captioned, "North Jersey Group Plans for March On Washington" Over 1,500 Expected. The article in part reflects that the North Jersey Coordinating Committee of the March On Washington discussed plans yesterday to accommodate not less than fifteen hundred persons from this section of the State who will March On Washington on August 28, 1963.

About thirty persons began arrangements for bus and railroad transportation to Washington and for the conduct and security of the demonstrators while there. A survey of the unemployed will be made, with a view to providing free transportation to several hundred such persons.

Tickets will be on sale at barber shops and beauty parlors, whose proprietors will be asked to remain closed on the day of the "March" as an expression of their moral support.

Mayors in the New Jersey area will be asked to proclaim August 28, 1963, as "Freedom Day".

Frederick Robinson, of the Passaic Chapter of CORE, is enlisting volunteers for a special squad which will walk the entire distance to Washington. He has six volunteers at present. They will leave New Jersey a week ahead of the planned caravan which will travel mainly by buses.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Enclosed are an article entitled "Christian Crusader Plasts Agreement on A-Test Ban", and original and nine copies of a LHM concerning criticism of the U.S.-Russian-British test ban agreement by BILLY JAMES HARGIS, founder of Christian Crusade. One copy of LHM is enclosed for Miami and Washington Field Offices.

As stated in retel the Fifth Annual Conference (Convention) of Christian Crusade is scheduled to be held August 2-4, 1963, at the Skirvin Hotel, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

It should be noted the original name of sponsoring organization was Christian Echoes National Ministry, Inc., a charitable organization legally chartered under the state laws of the State of Oklahoma. It has as its official publication the monthly magazine, "Christian Crusade". The organization is now commonly referred to as the Christian Crusade organization. The organization occupies offices at 219 South Boston, Tulsa, Oklahoma. The organization was formed by Reverend BILLY JAMES HARGIS who considers himself an evangelist. The organization has for several years been active as an anti-communist organization.

It is noted retel states one of the purposes of the conference (8/2-4/63) will be to discuss policy and strategy for "patriots" to take home regarding the August 28 (1963) March on Washington. In view of the fact this is the Fifth Annual Convention of this organization and this has been planned at least since 6/11/63 it is considered that although it is likely the topic of the March on Washington will be included in the agenda of the convention, it probably was not one of the purposes of scheduling the convention. The Fourth Annual Convention was held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on August 3-5, 1962.

For the information and consideration of the Bureau it should be noted the Youth Council of the NAACP has announced through the local press they plan a protest demonstration on August 4, 1963, at the Wedgewood Village Amusement Park. The demonstration will be in protest of the amusement park owner's announcement on 7/24/63, that after operating his park for thirty days on an integrated basis, he found it necessary to set up a procedure whereby the park would be integrated on a one day per week basis. The park owner announced that effective immediately the park would be fully integrated on Thursdays only.

In view of the fact retel indicates some of the "patriots" who plan to be in attendance at the Christian Crusade Conference plan also to be in Washington, D.C. for the March on Washington, it is considered they may likewise decide to appear at the scheduled NAACP Youth Council demonstration in Oklahoma City scheduled for the last day of their convention, i.e. 8/4/63.

Information copies of this communication and enclosed LHM being furnished Miami and Washington Field in view of their interest this matter.

OC 157-158

REQUEST OF BUREAU: In view of allegations retel concerning the group's interest in the March on Washington and the scheduled NAACP demonstration in Oklahoma City on 8/4/63, it is suggested Bureau consider authorizing the Oklahoma City Office to discreetly arrange for live coverage of the 8/2-4/63 Christian Crusade Fifth Annual Conference.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

The July 29, 1963, edition of "The Daily Oklahoman", an established newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, contains an article entitled, "Christian Crusader Blasts A-Test Ban".

The article in essence states as follows:

Billy James Hargis, Tulsa evangelist, branded the U.S.-Russian-British test ban agreement as another deceit by Averell Harriman. Hargis, in making his comments, was speaking before a rally of approximately one-hundred persons at the Calvary Tabernacle, 1813 N.W. 2nd Street in Oklahoma City on July 28, 1963. The rally was held in advance of the Christian Crusade convention scheduled to be held August 2-4, 1963, at the Skirvin Hotel in Oklahoma City.

Hargis stated he felt the greatest need in the U.S. is a spiritual and patriotic awakening. He claimed the Communist timetable calls for taking over the U. S. in two years and it is the business of the church to be in the forefront of the battle. He stated he still believed we can whip "Communism, liberalism, internationalism, world government, or what you call it".

Hargis stated Harriman "sold out the U.S. once before and Harriman knows you can not do business with the Communists. He stated 52 agreements have been made with the Communists since Yalta and 50 have been broken. Now we're going to foolishly disarm while others continue testing. There is no evidence Khrushchev has become a new man. This deal will enable the Communists to catch up. We tied our hands and they go on testing."

Hargis said the last free election in the U.S. will be next year unless a conservative is elected. He said he did not care which political party wins in 1964. He predicted a third U.S. political party would spring up in 1964 if neither party nominated a conservative. He said, "There'll be the biggest political convention in the history of the U.S. if they don't have a conservative. You know why? Because I'm going to help bring it about."

Hargis termed the U.S. Supreme Court decision on prayer as a "dastardly deed" and said the Bible reading decision this year is another "hit and run decision".

Hargis blamed the current racial agitation on the Communists. He then called for the need of a counter-balance for what he termed "a liberal group like the NAACP".

Christian Crusader Blasts Agreement on A-Test Ban

By Ken Bonham

Billy James Hargis, Tulsa evangelist, Sunday branded the U. S. - Russian - British test ban agreement as another deceit by Averell Harriman.

He also warned that "the last free election in the U. S. will be next year," unless a conservative is elected.

Hargis spoke at a rally attended by about 100 at the Calvary Tabernacle, 1813 NW 2, in advance of the August 2-4 Christian Crusade Convention at Skirvin Hotel.

"I feel the greatest need in the U. S. is a spiritual and patriotic awakening," Hargis declared in the semi-political speech.

Hargis said the Communist timetable calls for taking over the United States in two years and "it is the business of the church to be in the forefront of the battle."

"I still believe we can whip communism, liberalism, internationalism, world government or what you call it," he said.

The evangelist said Harriman "sold out the U. S." once before, and Harriman knows you can not do business with the Communists.

He said 52 agreements have been made with the Communists since Yalta and 50 have been broken.

"Now we're going to foolishly disarm while others continue testing. There is no evidence Khrushchev has become a new man.

"This deal will enable the Communists to catch up. We tied our hands and they go on testing," Hargis said.

The founder of the Christian Crusade said he did not care which political party wins in 1964, "just so that we have a strong thinking free enterprise man in the White House."

He termed the U. S. Supreme Court decision on prayer two years ago as a "dastardly deed", and said the Bible reading decision this year is another "hit and run decision."

Hargis blamed the current racial agitation on the communists.

He then called for the need of a counterbalance for what he termed "a liberal group like the NAACP."

He predicted a third U. S. political party would spring up in 1964 if neither party nominates a conservative.

"There'll be the biggest political convention in the history of the U. S. if they don't have a conservative.

"You know why?" he asked. "Because I'm going to help bring it about."

Bureau has previously advised Oklahoma City of the necessity for determining whether the conference concerns itself with the August 28 march on Washington and Oklahoma City has been instructed not to conduct any active investigation but to effect coverage through established sources, confidential sources, and informants. Incoming airtel raises question as to whether convention should be covered through [REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] the Bureau instruction may have crossed in mail; however, it is deemed advisable to re-emphasize prior Bureau instruction inasmuch as preliminary information indicating possibility "patriots" from the Christian Crusade may attempt to provoke violence during the march on Washington.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE (u)

The August 3, 1963, edition of the "Oklahoma City Times", a daily newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflected an article entitled, "Birch Society Founder Talks Here".

The article stated, in part, the following:

The first meeting of the Fifth Annual Christian Crusade national convention was held at the Skirvin Tower Hotel in Oklahoma City on Friday night, August 2nd. Over 30 states were represented at the first night of the convention, with Texas having the largest out-of-state delegation.

"Charles Weber, a local radio pastor, gave a scripture reading followed by a sermon denouncing the United States welfare and foreign aid program...."

Following the prayer, Billy James Hargis, Tulsa, Oklahoma, minister, read off the program.

Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, was introduced as the keynote speaker.

"Welch strung together nearly 20 stories of experiences he has had in his childhood and his travels, with the intent of concluding that 'there's nothing as stupid as government when it comes to stupidity.' Applause was brief, but quick, on that comment....." (u)

The August 4, 1963, edition of "The Sunday Oklahoman", a Sunday newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflected an article entitled, "Crusader Rips Church Group".

The article stated, in part, the following:

"The National Council of Churches and America's participation in a test ban treaty came under attack Saturday by speakers at the Christian Crusade, underway in Oklahoma City. Also assailed were the United Nations, both political parties, and the nation's news media. A Cuban exile leader challenged the Organization of American States (OAS) to send armed forces into Cuba, and another speaker former Major General Edwin Walker, was hailed with calls of 'Walker for President'.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE (u)

"Luis V. Manrara, Miami, Florida, said the OAS has the 'right and obligation' to eradicate Communism from this hemisphere. It is the legal, moral and military answer, he said, and member nations have the power 'to intervene with armed forces in Cuba, collectively or unilaterally.'

B. APPROX 14
"A 26-year-old Wisconsin minister, Reverend David Noebel, Madison, discussed 'The Liberal Papers', a collection of 12 essays edited by James Roosevelt and authored by persons working in or with the Kennedy administration. He said the suggestion in the book for America's foreign and domestic policies closely follow a list of Communist goals. 'These ideas are being used by the Kennedy administration,' Noebel said.....

"Dr. Charles S. Poling, Wickenburg, Arizona, retired Presbyterian minister, accused most ministers in the United States of having 'greater devotion to the National Council of Churches than they do in God. The National Council has become the most deeply-entrenched, well organized socialist political party America has ever known,' he said....

"A retired general...told the crowd the Soviet Union will not honor the recent test ban treaty any longer than the treaty can be used to its own advantage. Brigadier General (Retired) Richard B. Moran, Kerrville, Texas, said of 52 treaties Russia has entered into with the United States, the Soviets have broken 50 of them. (u)

"Former Major General Walker hit the test ban treaty, politics, and the press. 'Why must there be a test ban treaty?' he asked. 'We never agreed with anybody to arm in the first place. This is incredible. This reason is treason,' he said.

"Sounding like a candidate for political office, Walker hit at the Republican and Democratic parties, claiming they both have 'no choice' platforms.

" 'The platform to vote for is the one of the man against the UN,' he said. 'If you're not for him, you're not voting for survival...survival is the basic issue.'

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE (u)

"Walker said he's a member of one party, 'the people's party of America, and I'm sure 75 percent of the people are in it, too.'

" 'What am I doing?' Walker asked, 'I'm propagandizing and agitating.' As the crowd began to applaud, he asked, 'Do you like it?' and was met with an ovation and scattered cries of 'Walker for President'."

The August 5, 1963, edition of "The Daily Oklahoman" reflects that FULTON LEWIS, JR. was a speaker at the Sunday meeting of the Christian Crusade in Oklahoma City. The article quoted Lewis as stating the conservatives, "split into little groups", should unite to "substitute a new president in the White House." He told conservatives to "get rid of schism, nit-picking, disagreements on little tiny details and fancy theories (and) get behind a candidate or principle which has the courage to break the Kennedy family hierarchy."

The article relates that about 550 persons in the Skirvin Tower attending the convention heard Lewis blast civil service and foreign service programs, claiming the Kennedy administration keeps the federal payroll big for vote-getting purposes.

The article reflects LEWIS endorsed Senator Barry Goldwater for President and depicted President Kennedy as a "pleasant, superficial playboy who has no more business being president than I have being God."

LEWIS was quoted as saying that to fight the international Communist conspiracy, the average person "can vote against Mr. Kennedy for re-election."

This article indicated that the Christian Crusade ended its three-day session on the night of August 4, 1963.

She advised that the headquarters for the Long Island Coordinating Committee is located at the Unitarian - Universalist Church, located at Stewart Avenue, Mitchel Field, Garden City, Long Island, New York. She advised that the church is being used as the committee headquarters, and that all meetings and arrangements will be made by the committee out of this office.

She commented that the Reverend [REDACTED] pastor of the church, has endorsed the March and consented to the church being utilized as the headquarters and coordinating point of the march. She stated that the local communities in Nassau County who are interested in joining the March on Washington will in total comprise the Long Island Coordinating Committee, and the directions and plans will be rendered by [REDACTED]

Re: March on Washington, August 28, 1963

She advised that buses in the main will be used to transport the people, but that the committee needed donations to help defray the expenses of persons who may be interested in going but unable to pay the fare. She advised that the Long Island Coordinating Committee expects to be given a designated point of assembly when they arrive in the early morning of August 28, 1963, from the National Office of the March on Washington.

According to [REDACTED] the Long Island Coordinating Committee group will depart from Washington at the conclusion of the program on August 28, 1963, and return to Nassau County, Long Island, New York. She advised that the Long Island Coordinating Committee is considering extending invitations to Congressional representatives from Nassau County to visit the group, if possible, when they arrive in Washington.

[REDACTED] advised that the following church groups have endorsed their program, namely:

Long Island Presbytery's Commission on Religion and Race; the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Central Nassau, mentioned above, as well as certain Episcopal clergymen and rabbis associated with some temples in Nassau County, whose names she did not know, have also endorsed the March.

[REDACTED] stated that the purpose of the "Long Island Coordinating Committee's March on Washington" is to gain the support of the Congressional representatives to pass the Civil Rights bill and to demand more legislation for equal job opportunities.

[REDACTED] advised that final plans regarding the number of persons to attend the March or the number of buses involved have not been formulated to date, but that such plans will be arranged in the immediate future.

Re: March on Washington
August 28, 1963
Racial Matters

The August 6, 1963, edition of the Evening Journal, a daily newspaper published in Wilmington, Delaware, contained an article entitled "1,000 Delawareans Expected To Take Part in 'Rights' March."

The article set out that Mrs. James W. Williams is the secretary of the march committee, and that an estimated figure of 1000 has been set for the number of individuals from the Wilmington, Delaware, area to participate in the August 28th civil rights march on Washington. Arrangements have been made for a round trip to Washington, D.C., by bus for a fare of $3.00. Buses are scheduled to leave Rodney Square, Wilmington, approximately 7:00 a.m., August 28, 1963.

The committee, of which Mrs. Williams is the secretary, plans to conduct meetings every Monday night at the West Presbyterian Church, 8th and Washington Sts., Wilmington, to formulate plans for this march on Washington.

De General Jackson, former chairman of the people's action committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Wilmington, is chairman of the march and Leonard L. Williams, a Wilmington attorney, is transportation chairman.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

The July 27, 1963, issue of the "Waterbury Republican", a Waterbury, Connecticut, daily newspaper, on page three, in an article captioned, "City Group Plans Protest Participation" pointed out that participation in the August 28, 1963 civil rights demonstration in Washington, D.C., was being planned by a delegation from Waterbury, Connecticut, but that travel plans had not been made.

The article revealed that the Reverend JAMES E. MC CALL, President of the Waterbury Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), stated that transportation arrangements may be discussed during the following week. It was also revealed that at New Haven, Connecticut, the Reverend WILLIAM SLOAN COFFIN, JR., Yale University Chaplain, announced that a special train had been chartered to take 600 negroes and whites from the State of Connecticut to Washington, D.C. This train will leave from Hartford, Connecticut, and will make stops within the State at New Haven, Bridgeport, Norwalk and Stamford.

It was further pointed out that LINWOOD BLAND, JR., President of the New London, Connecticut chapter of the NAACP was "very discouraged" over the response by area residents to go to Washington. He was quoted as having stated that only four individuals, including himself, had volunteered to participate in the Washington march. BLAND further indicated that 500 persons in the Stamford and Norwalk areas had expressed willingness to join in the march.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

b7d

The "New York Times" issue of August 4, 1963, Page 57, contained an article which advised that leaders of the March on Washington Committee met at New York City on August 3, 1963, and that A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the March on Washington Committee expressed the opinion that many more than the 100,000 persons originally expected to participate in the event would be present at Washington, D.C. The August 4, 1963 issue of the "New York Mirror", Page 10, commenting on the same meeting, indicated that A. Philip Randolph predicted that 250,000 persons would participate in the March on Washington at Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963.

The above-mentioned "New York Times" article of May 4, 1963, reported that four newly named individuals have been added to the March on Washington Committee namely:

Walter Reuther, United Automobile Workers;
The Reverend Eugene Carson Blake of the National Council of Churches;
Rabbi Joachim Prinz of the American Jewish Congress;
Walter Annemann of the National Catholic Council for Inter-Racial Justice.

NY

The "New York World Telegram and Sun" issue of August 5, 1963, Page one, contained an article concerning certain activities of the March on Washington Committee. This article advised that the committee was taking certain precautions concerning the conduct of the participating marchers. The article indicated that the committee plans to station 500 men in teams of ten, equipped with walkie-talkies and bull horns along the line of march; further that no one will be permitted to march who is not wearing an armed band issued by the March on Washington Committee. Each group traveling to Washington, D.C., will be under the command of a local captain. The article stated that on the morning of August 28, 1963, the marchers will assemble at 51 different locations around Washington, D.C., and congressmen will be invited to come to the various assembly points to receive petitions and to address their constituents. The article stated that the committee hopes to have the March on Washington program concluded at 5:30 p.m.; that it hopes to have all the participants in the March on Washington back in their trains and buses or other transportation facilities, and on their way out of Washington back to their respective home by 7:30 p.m.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

The August 3, 1963, issue of the "New York World Telegram and Sun" contained an article which announced that the New York State Association of Elks, IBPOEW, is planning to hold, at noon to midnight, a civil rights rally at the Polo Grounds, New York City, on August 25, 1963, to raise funds for the March on Washington Committee.

The August 6, 1963 issue of the "New York Times" contained an announcement that Mayor Robert F. Wagner of the City of New York had declared August 28, 1963, as "Freedom Day" and that he had instructed all departments of the Civic Administration of the City of New York to allow any employees who wished to participate in the March on Washington to have the day off.

In view of statements of Negro leaders aiming at a goal of 100,000 to 250,000 participants in the March on Washington and in view of the national publicity being afforded this demonstration, it appears desirable at this time to re-emphasize to all SACs of all continental offices their personal responsibility to see that effective coverage of participating groups is continued, and to re-emphasize previous instructions furnished by Bureau airtel to all continental offices 7/18/63 as well as to point out the standard format for field airtels transmitting letterhead memoranda concerning the March.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is an airtel to all continental offices re-emphasizing the need for continued coverage of groups planning to participate in the March on Washington and the need for keeping the Bureau and Washington Field currently advised of pertinent activities.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

The Bureau desires to re-emphasize at this time the instructions set forth in Buairtel 7/18/63 outlining the necessity for keeping the Bureau immediately advised of all groups planning to attend the March on Washington.

You were instructed that a summary of current information was to reach the Bureau by 8/15/63, although information bearing on other pertinent activities in connection with the March should be furnished as received. You were also advised that copies of communications pertaining to the March should be furnished Washington Field, office of origin. The nation-wide publicity and public interest involved in this demonstration, together with our responsibility for keeping interested agencies currently advised as to developments, require this matter be afforded preferred attention.

The National Office of the March on Washington in New York City is still in the process of finalizing demonstration plans

Airtel to SAC, Albany
RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

Preliminary reports received from various divisions indicate a varying response with respect to the number of participants expected to attend, although numbers outlined by national leaders of the March on Washington have ranged from 100,000 to 250,000. A stronger preliminary response has been noted in the New York - Philadelphia area where approximately 12,000 individuals will be traveling to Washington. [REDACTED] In b7d contrast, for example, is the response from the San Antonio area where contact with [REDACTED] b7d

[REDACTED] indicates no known organizational plans to send participants although it appears demonstrations may be organized on August 28, 1963, in the form of marches to the State Capitol.

Each continental office without fail must submit an airtel to reach the Bureau by August 18, 1963, providing a summary of groups attending or planning to attend. In the event liaison with your sources and/or information from informants indicate no known participants are traveling from your division, such information is to be furnished in airtel form to reach the Bureau by the deadline date.

You were originally advised that the information concerning participating groups must be promptly furnished the Bureau and to the Washington Field Office by teletype and the information thereafter furnished to the Bureau in letterhead memorandum form suitable for dissemination. This requirement for keeping the Bureau and Washington Field currently advised of developments expeditiously is in no way changed.

In addition to the caption "March on Washington, August 28, 1963, Racial Matters" the airtel due at the Bureau 8/18/63 should bear the subcaption "Summary of Participants," and should contain a synopsis of groups planning to attend. In accordance with previous instructions as an enclosure to the airtel there should be attached a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination setting forth the most current details as to the make-up of delegations.

In the cover airtel, following the March on Washington caption and the subcaption, there should be set forth the following in synopsis form under three separate headings:

1. Sponsored participants
2. Hate or Klan groups planning attendance
3. Other organizations planning attendance

Under each of the three headings above there should be set forth in tabular form the following:

| Group (Name and Location) | Number of Persons | Mode of Transportation |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|

It is anticipated that there will be changes in the plans of some groups reaching your informants and sources subsequent to August 14, the approximate date on which the required airtels will be clearing division offices to reach the Bureau August 15. You will, of course, be expected to maintain source and informant coverage of the March on Washington up to and including the date of the August 28, 1963, demonstration as well as thereafter (should various delegations desire to send subsequent groups to Washington to demonstrate while Congress is considering civil rights legislation). Such changes in the possible plans of local groups received by you subsequent to the submission of the first summary should thereafter be transmitted to the Bureau utilizing the format outlined above except that each succeeding airtel in addition to carrying the subcaption "Participant Summary" should also alongside this subcaption bear the notation "Supplement."

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963
Racial Matter

The Morning Edition of the Boston Globe, a daily newspaper published in Boston, Massachusetts, carried an article under the byline of George M. Collins, captioned "Twenty-five to Join Rights Session." The article reads as follows:

"Twenty-five Bay Staters, including four religious leaders, will travel to Washington Tuesday to participate in a three-day "grass-roots" strategy conference on civil rights.

"The session is meant to serve as a prelude to the planned Aug. 28 "March on Washington" when 250,000 persons are expected to converge on the Capitol in support of President Kennedy's proposed civil rights program.

"The Mass. delegation will join hundreds of civil rights supporters who will be in Washington through Thursday lobbying for passage of the administration's program.

"The four clergymen, who represent Jewish, Protestant and Roman Catholic Bay Staters are: Rev. Wayne Horvath of the Massachusetts Council of Churches; Msgr. Edmund F. Hackett, special representative of Cardinal Cushing; Rabbi Albert S. Goldstein of the Massachusetts Board of Rabbis and Rev. John Snow of Christ Church, Cambridge.

"More Bay State clergy are expected to take part in the Aug. 28 demonstrations. The United Church of Christ launched a campaign this weekend to interest as many members of the denomination as possible, either in direct participation or in a letter writing campaign.

11/25/68
"Every local chairman of the Social Action committees and all clergymen received letters from Rev. Dr. Ray Gibbons, director of the United Church for Christian Social Action urging them to take part in the drive for racial equality.

"The National Council of Churches reported Sunday that it expects more than 40,000 representatives of member churches will be among the quarter million expected in the nation's capital.

"The 'grass roots' meetings this week have a three-fold purpose: personal contact Tuesday with U. S. senators from each state; personal contact on Wednesday by congressional district delegates with their U. S. representatives; meetings at the Hotel Statler-Hilton, Washington, Thursday to discuss the results of the meetings with congressmen and to plan follow-up actions before the Aug. 28 meetings.

"The Massachusetts group will concentrate on Sen. ~~Leverett~~ Saltonstall Tuesday according to Archie Epps, assistant to the executive secretary of the Boston Branch of the N.A.A.C.P.

Archie C. Epps
"We have heard that Sen. Saltonstall will not support the public accommodations phase of the Civil Rights Bill," said Epps, "and we want to discuss this with Mr. Saltonstall."

"After the meetings this week," he continued "we hope to inform the public, especially those who will take part in the August 28 march to Washington, just where their congressmen stand on this issue."

"The 25 Bay Staters, other than the clergymen, will come from each of the state's congressional districts, he said.

1225 S.
"Among Greater Bostonians with the clergymen will be: Mrs. George Ireland, president of the Federation of Republican Women of Massachusetts; Prof. Mark DeWolfe Howe of Harvard Law School, Dr. Martin Peretz of Harvard University; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mann, special representatives of Frederick Dumaine, chairman of the Republican State Committee; Atty. Glendora Mackelhane, Mrs. Melnia Cass, past president of the Boston Branch, N.A.A.C.P.; Otto Snowden of Freedom House; Mrs. Florence Castleman, Dr. Jaimia Perry, Tommy Blunt, president of the Youth Council of the Boston Branch, N.A.A.C.P. and Epps."

WASHINGTON--PRESIDENT KENNEDY TODAY ENDORSED PLANS BY NEGRO LEADERS FOR A MASSIVE INTEGRATION DEMONSTRATION IN WASHINGTON NEXT MONTH AS BEING IN "THE GREAT TRADITION" OF AMERICAN LIBERTY.

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE HE IS LOOKING FORWARD TO BEING IN THE CAPITAL WHEN THE AUG. 28 MARCH ON BEHALF OF CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION OCCURS.

AT THE SAME TIME, KENNEDY CAUTIONED ANEW AGAINST PROTEST EFFORTS WHICH MIGHT PROVOKE VIOLENCE.

HE TOLD A QUESTIONER THAT THE AUG. 28 DEMONSTRATION THAT MAY BRING BETWEEN 100,000 AND 200,000 NEGROES AND INTEGRATION ADVOCATES TO THE CITY IS SHAPING UP AS "A PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY CALLING FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES."

ADD 1 KENNEDY-NEGROES WASHINGTON (UPI-139)

KENNEDY ANSWERED GOV. ROSS BARNETT OF MISSISSIPPI'S CHARGE THAT COMMUNISTS ARE BEHIND PRESENT RACIAL DEMONSTRATIONS BY SAYING THAT THIS ARGUMENT PROVIDES "A CONVENIENT SCAPEGOAT."

HE SAID THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE THAT ANY LEADERS OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT WERE COMMUNISTS OR THAT THE DEMONSTRATIONS WERE COMMUNIST-INSPIRED, ALTHOUGH COMMUNISTS MAY HAVE PARTICIPATED. THE EASIEST WAY TO DEAL WITH THE PROBLEM, HE SAID, IS TO ACT TO REDRESS GRIEVANCES.

TO A QUESTION AS TO WHETHER HE WOULD REPUDIATE SEGREGATIONISM IN THE 1964 CAMPAIGN, KENNEDY SAID THE ADMINISTRATION RECORD WOULD BE SO WELL KNOWN ON THIS ISSUE THAT THERE WOULD BE NO DIFFICULTY IN IDENTIFYING THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY'S STAND. ON THE BASIS OF HISTORY, HE SAID, HE WOULD EXPECT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY TO TAKE A SIMILAR STAND ON CIVIL RIGHTS.

The August 6, 1963, edition of "The Tulsa Tribune", Colored people a daily newspaper published at Tulsa, Oklahoma, reflects an article entitled, "Negroes Plan Rights Trip".

The article states, in part, that Reverend Ben Hill, president of the Tulsa NAACP, announced that some 80 Tulsa Negroes plan a trip to Washington, D. C., in two chartered buses to take part in the scheduled demonstration in Washington on August 28, 1963, to promote civil rights legislation. One bus will be occupied by adult Negroes, about one-third of whom will be unemployed. The second bus will be occupied by Negro teen-agers and young adults who are members of the Youth Council of the Tulsa NAACP. The Negro community is raising funds to underwrite expenses of the unemployed Negroes making the trip. The young Negro adults are presently raising funds to finance the trip.

ReBuairtel 8/2/63.

As the Bureau is aware the plans for captioned affair are fluctuating on a day to day basis as reflected by periodic releases by the National Headquarters of the March. Accordingly, WFO's overall plan of coverage is at this time fluid and will be adjusted accordingly to fit the changes as they develop. As experienced during the 6/14/63 demonstration in Washington, D. C., changes were made by leaders up to the last hour and during the affair. However, following is WFO's overall thinking at this time regarding coverage of the 8/28/63 demonstration.

In addition, WFO is maintaining daily liaison with _____ Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), and _____ MPD officials who have been assigned primary jurisdiction in regard to _____ the demonstration. Daily liaison has also been developed with [REDACTED], U. S. Park Police, which organization has primary jurisdiction at the Washington and Lincoln Memorial grounds. The MPD, however, has agreed to accept the entire responsibility for traffic and crowd control on 8/28/63. [REDACTED], MPD, has been named as chief liaison officer between demonstration leaders and the police agencies, and he likewise is being contacted for developments. b7C

Diligent liaison will be continued with [REDACTED] police authorities and military intelligence officials, in order to obtain current developments. b7D

Information received from other offices and newspaper stories indicate that the number of participants will far exceed the anticipated 100,000 figure. [REDACTED] b7D

Regarding coverage of the demonstration, WFO has prepared a list of all WFO Agents, exclusive of those Agents necessarily required for other special assignments on 8/28/63, and if required the services of all these Agents will be used to effectively cover the demonstration. [REDACTED] b7E

The August 31, 1963, issue of "Newday", a Nassau County, New York, daily newspaper published at Garden City, Long Island, New York, contained a feature story captioned "40 LI Groups to Join D.C. Rights March". The article stated in part as follows:

"Garden City - Representatives of 40 Long Island groups will meet here tomorrow to plan a massive participation by Long Islanders in the Aug. 28 civil rights march on Washington. Tentative plans call for the chartering of buses, planes and trains to transport thousands of persons to the capital.

The groups will be coordinated by the newly-formed March on Washington Long Island Coordinating Committee. Attending were Long Islanders active in civil rights work and officials of the national committee. One of those who attended, Mrs. Elsie Gilman of Great Neck, said the new committee would elect officers and begin planning for the march at tomorrow's meeting.

Mrs. Gilman, a member of the new group's steering committee, said: 'We expect thousands of persons to go', she said. She said that the Long Island Presbytery's Commission on Religion and Race had announced that Presbyterian ministers would urge their 31,000 parishioners to join the march.

Mrs. Gilman said that the commission, 17 local committees of the Long Island Council for Integrated Housing

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE (u)

The August 3, 1963, edition of "The Daily Oklahoman", a daily newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflected an article entitled, "Big Government Ripped by Welch".

The article stated, in part, the following:

"The greatest tragedy of the 20th century is the increase of 'swollen over-extended' government everywhere, Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, said Friday night in Oklahoma City. Speaking to 500 persons attending his keynote address of the Christian Crusade, Welch called 'this tragedy' greater than the Communist menace.

" 'Even when composed of honest and intelligent individuals, government combines and increases the stupidity of men. And for a government, the stupid action, stupid course, is almost always the easiest and safest course,' he said.

"When asked if the John Birchers supported a particular candidate for the 1964 presidential election, Welch said the society has 'no position ever in regard to politics.' He indicated a majority of the society probably would back a conservative candidate. (u)

Concerning the nation's racial upheaval, Welch said, "We have a very strong position in that we take absolutely no position. This matter should be left up to local communities to handle.... the federal government has no right to say what local groups should do.

"In summing up his 90-minute talk, Welch was applauded when he said as stupid as people can be, 'none of us anywhere can begin to touch governments when it comes to stupidity. It is the tendency to increasing, swollen, over-extended government that constitutes the greatest tragedy of the 20th century.' Welch said the world's people - except for the communists - 'who, if they are truly communists can't be thought of as human beings in any consideration of humanitarian qualities' - are nearly alike."

[REDACTED], where [REDACTED] is employed, along with several other persons. [REDACTED] and the other persons were introduced to SA [REDACTED], after which a conversation ensued. It may be noted that the subjects of racial trouble, the march on Washington and the activities of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL of the American Nazi Party are more common than discussion of the weather and since these subjects were brought up by [REDACTED] and the other persons present, SA [REDACTED] took advantage of the opportunity to gather the information set forth in attached LHM. Following is a physical description of [REDACTED] obtained from observation by SA [REDACTED] b7C

[REDACTED]

For Bureau's information, Richmond Division is maintaining close contact with [REDACTED] as well as movements and activities of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Va. and Alexandria, Va., and while there is no information available tending to confirm that 15 to 20,000 persons will stage a counter-demonstration, there are rumors that [REDACTED] will join with ANP and efforts are being made in other areas of the U.S. to organize persons to visit Washington, D.C. A separate LHM being sent Bureau on this phase today. b7D

LEADS:

AT ARLINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA, VA.

Will maintain close contact with [REDACTED] and movements and activities of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL for the purpose of obtaining any information which would tend to confirm or refute report that ROCKWELL and/or ANP have organized 15 to 20,000 white persons to go to Washington, D.C. 8/28/63 and oppose planned Negro demonstrations. b7D

AT LYNCHBURG, VA.

Will maintain contact with [REDACTED] to obtain any additional pertinent info indicating he may be active in any group planning travel to WDC in opposition to above described demonstrations. b7C b7D

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

[REDACTED] b7D

A second source at Lynchburg, Virginia, advised on August 8, 1963, that he had a conversation with [REDACTED] in Lynchburg that date [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This source advised that the subject of the march on Washington came up during this conversation and [REDACTED] stated he had heard that there were several thousand white people going to Washington, D.C. on August 28, 1963, but he doubted that this would accomplish anything since the authorities would not let the whites demonstrate there on that day due to the planned demonstrations of Negroes. [REDACTED] complained that the so-called right-wing leaders and people of that persuasion could not make a speech any more due to opposition from Communist and leftist groups throughout the United States but that Communists, left-wingers and Negroes were permitted to make speeches wherever they wanted to. [REDACTED] mentioned that in his opinion LINCOLN ROCKWELL, leader of the American Nazi Party, was a "third grade national socialist" who merely has a racket to get money and it is the opinion of [REDACTED] that ROCKWELL is subsidized by B'nai B'rith to justify the existence of B'nai B'rith in its purported fight against racial discrimination in the United States. [REDACTED] stated that he had no organizational affiliations at present, is only trying to make a living for himself and his family and could not afford to become involved in any suspect group for fear of losing the livelihood of his family. He further offered the opinion that if a large group of white people did go into Washington on August 28, 1963,

b7C

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

with the idea of opposing the demonstration planned by Negroes, this could be a very explosive situation, but reiterated that he did not believe any such group of white persons would be allowed to interfere.

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

RACIAL MATTERS

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

DATE 5/7/86 BY 988BJ/RBG

Memorandum of A. Rosen to Mr. Belmont captioned as above dated July 30, 1963, called attention to possible security precautions which might be placed into effect should any demonstrations occur in the Federal Triangle area in connection with the march on Washington, August 28, 1963, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Purpose of this memorandum is to consider the suggestion of the Laboratory Division that some Seat of Government Bureau automobiles should be dispersed away from the building so that any bottling up may be prevented.

The Administrative Division maintains 15 Bureau automobiles in the Justice Building courtyard in addition to three automobiles and six carryalls used exclusively by courier service of Files and Communications Division. In addition to this, one Bureau automobile is maintained in the basement garage of Identification Division Building and three Bureau automobiles at Riddell Building.

Any recommendation relative to the three automobiles and six carryalls used by courier service would, of course, originate with Files and Communications Division. Of principal concern in this memorandum are the 15 remaining automobiles in the courtyard area. Our experience has been that the majority of these automobiles are charged out for official use and leave the courtyard area prior to 10 a.m. each day. Based on present indications of the activity which will take place on August 28 in connection with the march on Washington, it does not appear that any dispersal of these automobiles should be made prior to their being placed into use on the morning of August 28. It would seem that any congestion or bottling up of the building would occur, if at all, later in the day. Accordingly, I think the best procedure would be that as these automobiles are charged out for use on the morning of August 28, instructions be given to each user that prior to returning to the Justice Building with the Bureau automobile, he should call the car register on extension 346 for instructions as to whether to return the Bureau automobile to the Justice Building courtyard or place it in some other storage area, as for example the Capitol Garage, 13th and New York Avenues, Northwest, Washington, D. C. This is the contract garage utilized by the Washington Field Office and current indications are that that garage is located outside of the proposed demonstration area.

The August 8, 1963, edition of the "New Britain Herald", a New Britain, Connecticut, daily newspaper on Page 1 contains an article captioned "Forty Local Persons Expected To Join in Washington March". This article revealed that the New Britain, Connecticut, Branch, NAACP, had chartered a bus for a trip to Washington, D.C., to participate in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. This bus will leave the New Britain Church Street Parkade at 11:00 P.M., August 27, 1963, and will depart the Washington, D.C., area at midnight on August 28, 1963.

According to the article, arrangements for this bus trip are being handled by Police Sergeant CLIFFORD WILLIS, who stated that approximately 40 New Britain residents are expected to take part in the march aimed at supporting civil rights legislation. It was revealed that bus reservations may be made by contacting Sergeant WILLIS at the Willis Barber Shop, 127 Hartford Avenue, New Britain, Connecticut, the deadline for filing reservations being August 20, 1963. D.C.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

The "Hartford Courant", a morning newspaper published daily and Sunday in Hartford, Connecticut, carried an article on August 8, 1963, which stated that the Hartford branch of the NAACP expected to be able to provide between 400-500 people from the Greater Hartford area to march on Washington on August 28, 1963, in support of President KENNEDY's civil rights bill. JAMES G. HARRIS, Jr., president of the Hartford branch, said that the group would start signing up people at once. The NAACP also expressed plans for chartering a train to carry the contingent from Connecticut. According to the article, the train will originate in Hartford and stop at New Haven, Bridgeport, Stamford and Norwalk, picking up other demonstrators.

The August 8, 1963, edition of the "New Haven Register", a New Haven, Connecticut, daily newspaper, on Page 32 set forth an article captioned "One Hundred Fifty From City Expected To 'March on Washington'". According to this article, New Haven civil rights groups joined by several fraternal labor and church organizations are formulating plans to send representatives to a mass eastern seaboard "March on Washington" on August 28, 1963. It was revealed that local marghers were expected to number more than 150 and will join approximately 1,000 other marchers from the State of Connecticut to make the trip to Washington, D.C. This article pointed out that plans call for a march on the White House aimed at promoting legislative action in civil rights. Among the changes being called for are increase Federal Works Program, full and fair employment, decent housing, the right to vote, and adequate integrated education.

According to this article, the march is being backed by prominent civil rights organizations, including Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE), NAACP, and National Urban League. It was pointed out that donations and reservations for the trip were being sought, the cost per person expected to be $17. Reservations or contributions may be sent to the Dixwell Avenue Congregational Church, 100 Dixwell Avenue, the NAACP, 304 Dixwell Avenue, or the New Haven March on Washington Committee, 48 Howe Street, all at New Haven, Connecticut.

CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

The August 5, 1963, evening edition of the "Oklahoma City Times," a daily newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflects an article entitled, "Convention Demands Rights Turmoil Probe."

The articles states, in part, the following:

A double-edged congressional investigation of reported Communist participation in America racial strife was demanded in closing meetings of the Christian Crusade in Oklahoma City Sunday night. A formal resolution called upon the House Un-American Activities Committee and the Senate Internal Security Committee to conduct the studies "for the purpose of revealing the true facts" behind current conflicts.

Dr. Billy James Hargis, founder of the Crusade, was quoted as saying, "We recognize racial problems exist that must be corrected, but we do not believe that massive disregard of law or mob rule are the correct methods in a free America."

The article stated the resolutions also lash out at use of United States tax money to print a pamphlet issued by United Nations which "attempted to prove that racial equality exists behind the iron curtain. Our funds were used to print Soviet propaganda, written by admitted Soviet authors."

Hargis said the Christian Crusade is now distributing a book called "Color, Communism, and Common Sense," written by Manning Johnson, a Negro who quit the Communist Party after rising to become the head of its affairs in this country.

Hargis claims racial strife was planned in the 1920's, and that Johnson outlines the exact program which is now being followed to "create civil war in this country that will weaken us until we'll be easy prey for Communism."

Convention Demands Rights Turmoil Probe

By Gilbert Hill
A double-edged congressional investigation of alleged Communist participation in American racial strife was demanded in closing meetings of the Christian Crusade in Oklahoma City Sunday night.

A formal resolution called upon the house un-American activities committee and the senate internal security committee to conduct the studies "for the purpose of revealing the true facts" behind current conflicts.

1,300 Delegates

The convention attracted 1,300 registered delegates from 38 states.

"We recognize racial problems exist that must be corrected," said Dr. Billy James Hargis, Crusade founder. "But we do not believe that massive disregard of law or mob rule are the correct methods in a free America."

The resolutions also lash out at use of U. S. tax money to print a pamphlet issued by United Nations which "attempted to prove that racial equality exists behind the iron curtain."

"Our funds were used to print Soviet propaganda written by admitted Soviet authors."

The Christian Crusade is now distributing a book called "Color, Communism, and Common Sense," written by Manning Johnson, a Negro who quit the Communist Party after rising to become the head of its affairs in this country, said Hargis.

Awards Given

Hargis claims present racial strife was planned in the 1920's, and that Johnson outlines the exact program which is now being followed to "create civil war in this country that will weaken us until we'll be easy prey for Communism."

Crusade awards were presented to U. S. Rep. James B. Utt, California; Dr. George J. Harris, Bunker Hill, Ill.; Robert Dilley, Des Moines; radio station

WGCB, Red Lion, Penn., owned by John Norris; the Borger News Herald, Borger, Texas; Fulton Lewis Jr., radio commentator; Gen. Richard B. Morton; Layman Cameron, San Antonio; A. B. McReynolds, Brandon, Fla.; former Maj. Gen. Edwin Walker; and Dr. Charles Poling.

Re: March On Washington
August 28, 1963

The August 8, 1963, edition of "The Saginaw News" local daily newspaper published at Saginaw, Michigan, contained an article revealing that on Sunday, August 11, 1963, the Saginaw Chapter of the NAACP is holding a meeting at St. Luke's CME Church, Saginaw. The purpose of this meeting is twofold. (1) To receive reports from Saginaw delegates pertaining to their attendance at the 54th Annual Convention of the NAACP held in Chicago, Illinois, last month. (2) To make plans " ... for Saginaw members of the NAACP to participate in the mass 'March On Washington For Jobs, Freedom, Aug. 28'. A special train from Detroit and a chartered bus from Flint will provide transportation".

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

With reference to the contemplated "March on Washington 8/28/63," all employees in the Special Investigative Division have been alerted to the need for utmost discretion in their conduct should this march take place. The possibility that some of the participants may be in the Justice Building or in the area of the Justice Building has been emphasized to all of our employees and they have been cautioned to be most circumspect in their conduct both in and out of the Building in order to avoid any possible incident or criticism being leveled at the Bureau. We have also stressed the need for security precautions should there be any persons attempting to enter any of our space. It has also been suggested to employees that they should remain away from the windows and continue in their normal activities.

ACTION:

We, of course, will follow this closely to insure that our plans are maintained on a current basis in order that any eventuality can be properly handled.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

On August 9, 1963 the Houston Press carried an article captioned "100 Houstonians to Take Part in March on Washington". This article reported that Reverend A. A. McCardell, Minister of a Negro Baptist church in Houston TEX. and President of the Houston chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), had just returned from Washington, D. C. and announced plans to take a delegation of 100 Houstonians to Washington, D. C. on August 28, 1963. McCardell stated his group could take many more people but he felt 100 would be a "conservative number". McCardell also stated his organization had made special arrangements to insure that the entire demonstration would be peaceful.

This article reported the Houston participants would travel to Washington in chartered Greyhound buses. Plans are for this group to leave Houston early on August 26, 1963 and arrive at Washington on August 27, 1963. It was announced the Houston group would stay at the Statler-Hilton Hotel while in Washington. McCardell added that his group would leave Washington for return to Houston either on the evening of August 28, 1963 or on the morning of August 29, 1963, depending on how tired his delegates were.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

McCardell reported that he expected his group to be a bi-racial group inasmuch as he had already had inquiries from several white members. He stated each person would pay his own expenses and the names of those planning to go would be announced after they were selected.

On August 9, 1963, the Houston Chronicle carried a similar article announcing 100 persons would leave Houston at 6:00 A.M. on August 26, 1963 by bus to take part in the civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C. on August 28, 1963. In this article, Reverend McCardell, mentioned above, announced that a special meeting of the Houston chapter of the NAACP had been called for Tuesday night, August 13, 1963 at the chapter headquarters, 2320 Dowling Street, Houston, Texas, to discuss this trip and work out the details. Reverend McCardell, identified as Pastor of the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, was quoted as stating he had just returned from Washington where he had conferred with civil rights leaders and with Texas Senators and Representatives. McCardell stated he had a number of excellent conferences and remarked, "We found some of the Congressmen we thought were against us actually were not".

According to "The Evening Bulletin" article, tentative plans call for travel to and from Washington by bus. The buses would leave Providence about midnight, August 27, 1963, in order to arrive in Washington between 8 AM and 10 AM the day of the march.

The article further reflects that the local National Association for the Advancement of Colored People initiated and is coordinating the drive for participation in the march of various Rhode Island groups.

March On Washington
August 28, 1963
Racial Matters

The New York daily Spanish-language newspaper, "El Diario-La Prensa", of July 26, 1963, contains an article reflecting that the Puerto Rican Commission for Community Planning (PRCCP) has as one of its activities, participation in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

The article states that the PRCCP was born out of the maximum organization of the Puerto Rican-Spanish-speaking colony of New York and has as its primary motivation, the battle for human dignity leading to equality and the recognition of human rights.

On July 24, 1963, leaders of the Puerto Rican community comprising a group appointed by the Sub-Committee Pro March on Washington under sponsorship of the PRCCP, met with Jose Monserrat, Director, Employment and Migration Bureau, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, 322 West 45th Street, New York City, to make a public announcement of the position of the Puerto Ricans in regard to the present struggle of the Negro race for civil rights. It was decided to draw up a "declaration of principles" and to organize for participation in the March on Washington.

The article concludes by stating that the PRCCP invites the entire Spanish-speaking population to join in the preparation of the PRCCP program for the March on Washington.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Close contact is being maintained with [REDACTED] in an effort to ascertain whether any persons in New Mexico intend to go to Washington, D. C. for the march on 8/28/63. [REDACTED] advise that because of the distance and expense involved, they do not expect anyone from New Mexico to make this trip. b7d [REDACTED] know of no proposed attempt by CP Members or other subversive or hate groups to capitalize on the March on Washington.

The Bureau will be advised of any pertinent information which may be received after this date.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

The "Catholic Transcript", a weekly newspaper published in Hartford, Connecticut, on the date of August 8, 1963, contained an article concerning the March on Washington on August 28, 1963, which reflected that the Catholic Interracial Council of Bridgeport and the Catholic Interracial Council of Stamford and Norwalk, and the Men's League of St. Martin DePorres parish in New Haven were to take part in the March on Washington. This article did not reflect the number of people attending or the leaders of the respective groups.

The "Hartford Courant", a daily newspaper published in Hartford, Connecticut, under date of August 10, 1963, in an article entitled "Donations Asked For Washington 'Freedom' Train" reflect that donations are being asked of Hartford residents to support the "March on Washington" by representatives from Connecticut to support President KENNEDY's civil rights bill and national movements for Negro equality.

The article reflected that many ministers in the Hartford area have designated this Sunday as "Freedom Sunday" and have requested their congregations make special offerings for the train. The train will leave Hartford at 1:45 A.M. on August 28, 1963, and will return late that same day. Tickets for the round trip are $10 and are on sale at the Bethel AME Church, 2003 Main Street, Hartford, from August 13-22, 1963. All contributions and orders for tickets may be made to the Riverside Trust Company, 90 Pearl Street, Hartford. The article reflected that the Reverend RICHARD A. BATTLES and the Reverend J. BLANTON SHIELDS, organizers of the Hartford contingent, said there is wide-spread support of the march. The article also reflected that the interest shown by the Reverend HENRY J. O'BRIEN, Archbishop of Hartford, the Greater Council of Churches, the Connecticut Council of Churches, and the Greater Hartford Council of Churches has been "tremendous".

The "Hartford Courant" on August 12, 1963, contained another article concerning the March on Washington tickets and reiterated that set forth above.

The August 9, 1963, issue of the "Norwich Bulletin", a Norwich, Connecticut, daily newspaper, carried an article which revealed that according to LINWOOD BLAND, Jr., President, New London, Connecticut, Chapter of the NAACP, 11 people in that area have indicated that they will participate in the March on Washington on August 28, 1963.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON,
AUGUST 28, 1963

On August 10, 1963, the "Miami Herald", a local Miami, Florida newspaper, reported that Doctor JOHN O. BROWN, a member of the Local Board of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Vice Chairman of the Miami Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), reported to the paper that a special train will leave from Miami on August 27, 1963, to carry integrationists to Washington for the Civil Rights March in the nation's capital on August 28, 1963. The train reportedly will stop in several other cities to pick up marchers but BROWN said he did not know all the stops and did not know how many persons the train would carry all together. The train is scheduled to arrive in Washington about an hour or two before the march and according to BROWN, transportation from the station to the march scene would be furnished. The train would depart from Washington on the return trip on the evening of August 28, 1963.

This article reported that according to BROWN, between 10 and 20 people in Miami have indicated they would catch the train. It was reported that the NAACP and CORE are in charge of local arrangements and each rider would pay his own $40.00 round trip fare. This article reported that among Miamians planning to go to Washington for the march are A. D. MOORE, Miami CORE Chairman; Doctor GEORGE A. SIMPSON, Vice President of the local NAACP Chapter; and CLARK WELLS of Cincinnati, serving as a guest minister this summer at the First Unitarian Church in Miami.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Callahan

DATE: July 25, 1963

FROM : [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: PROPOSED MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

A survey has been made within the Administrative Division to determine what, if any, precautions should be taken by the Administrative Division on 8-28-63 in view of the anticipated large number of people who will visit Washington on that date to demonstrate in behalf of civil rights. Newspaper publicity indicates that the organizers of the proposed march plan to have an assembly on the afternoon of 8-28-63 in the vicinity of the White House and in addition, it is probable that a large group of persons will visit the U. S. Capitol.

Within the areas of responsibility of the Administrative Division the possibility exists that a larger than usual number of applicants for Bureau employment may appear on that date. A sufficient supply of application forms and other material relating to Bureau employment will be made available and Special Agent Supervisors will be available to conduct any applicant interviews which are called for.

Regarding the security of office space, inquiry has been made of Mr. [REDACTED], Superintendent of the Justice Building, who stated that the General Services Administration Protection Branch will provide the maximum available guard force on that date by adjusting reporting hours, changing days off and in some cases canceling the annual leave of guards. In addition, according to Mr. [REDACTED], if developments should appear to warrant it, consideration will be given to closing all entrances to the Justice Building with the exception of the Ninth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue entrance and the Tenth Street automobile entrance, both of which are patrolled by guards.

In addition, all employees of the Administrative Division in the Justice Building will be warned to be particularly alert to the presence of any unauthorized persons within the working space of the Division.

The above is submitted for information.

ReWFOairtel 8/5/63 advising WFO plans to afford coverage of captioned demonstration. Following are supplemental changes and additional plans made to fit recent changes made by march leaders.

Specific assignments have been made for coverage of the 8/28/63 demonstration, requiring the use of 130 Special Agents. These assignments are based on march plans as they now exist and will be revised accordingly to fit any new developments.

Participants in the march from Washington, D. C. are scheduled to meet on the Ellipse while out-of-town marchers will gather on the grounds at the Washington Monument.

Assignments made include the coverage of the area from midnight 8/27/63. Specific assignments also include the handling of necessary administrative and paper duties; the monitoring of the Civilian Radio Band to be used by march officials in giving instructions; and the handling of telephone calls from Agents on specific coverage assignments. OFFICE

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As you are probably aware, Berman Gibson, of Hazard, Ky. is the leader of a group of pickets which have been roaming Eastern Kentucky since last September. In the Sunday Courier-Journal of July 28th. I believe it was, Gibson was quoted as saying that his group was going to march on Washington, and see President Kennedy, and among other things was going to demand that one-half of the trustees and of all Committees of APPALACHIAN REGIONAL HOSPITALS, INC. be members of his group. The article also mentioned one of his group, HAMISH SINCLAIR of New York City, supposedly a labor leader. 674

I am concerned that Gibson and Hamish Sinclair may be Communists or Communist sympathizers. Gibson may be a dupe. He does not say where his funds come from, but says they do not come from UMW of A. Word has reached me today that Gibson may be consulted about some additional trustees to be named from Eastern Kentucky to ARH (the organization is not yet completed)

EX 104 REC-10 152-270-21
A friend and former FBI Agent, [redacted] City, suggested that I write you for information about these characters. I am concerned by the report that either of these men might be consulted by any of our people. If you have any information about either person, I would appreciate the word as soon as may be.

6 AUG 15 1963

Gov. Bert T. Combs, Kentucky, is a good friend of mine and was elected a Trustee of ARH when his term as Governor is up in December, and am sure would vouch for me.

Cordially yours,

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

An article in the August 8, 1963, edition of "The Oklahoma Eagle," a Negro newspaper published at Tulsa, Oklahoma, contained an announcement by Amon T. Hall, Tulsa attorney who is Grandmaster of the Prince Hall Mason Lodge, that the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma plans to charter a bus for a delegation of Oklahomans to join the captioned demonstration.

Hall did not indicate the number of individuals included in the delegation nor did he indicate where the chartered bus would leave from, Tulsa or some other Oklahoma city.

It appears that the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma would cover members of the Lodge throughout the entire state of Oklahoma.

SUBJECT: SCHEDULING OF TOURS ON WEDNESDAY,
8-28-63, THE DAY OF THE PROPOSED
"MARCH ON WASHINGTON"

Several inquiries have been received recently from various Congressional and Senatorial offices with reference to scheduling tours for constituents on Wednesday, 8-28-63, the day of the proposed racial march on Washington. Several of the secretaries who have made inquiry have stated they have received some difficulty in scheduling tours at other places for this particular day because the other agencies do not know exactly what was going to be planned or even if they would open their doors for visitors that day.

Our Tour Room has been scheduling all requests received without comment as to what the Bureau plans to do on 8-28-63. To date we have scheduled 8 requests totaling 58 people and none of these requests have emanated from southern Congressmen or Senators.

It would appear that we should operate on a business as usual basis on 8-28-63. We will continue to schedule tours without comment. To close our tours might subject us to criticism as denying to the marchers or other people the opportunity to view facilities of the FBI. We will station Agents of the Crime Records Division at strategic places along the tour route to make certain our tours are carried out properly. We will bend over backwards to insure that there is no occurrence which could cause embarrassment to the Bureau. If we run into problems we cannot control on the part of the marchers, we will curtail tours immediately.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the program outlined above be approved for August 28, 1963.

Re: Martin Luther King
Security Matter - C

On August 8, 1963, a confidential source who is in a position to furnish reliable information advised that Martin Luther King was presently in New York City for an approximate ten day visit. According to this source, on August 26, 1963, King plans to take his family back to Atlanta, Georgia, and then plans to be in Chicago on noon of August 27, 1963 for a speech. According to this source King would then fly to Washington arriving there on the evening of August 27, 1963.

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise of changes in Courier Service run August 28, 1963.

The following stops on the regular courier run to other agencies will not be made because of security precautions and traffic congestion. Each of these stops is located within the demonstration area on Constitution Avenue, N. W., and access to these locations will, at best, be extremely limited. (1) Provost Marshall's Office, Main Navy Building (2) Veterans Administration, Records and Developments, Munitions Building (3) Director of Security, National Aeronautics and Space Administration (4) Central Intelligence Agency (all mail), Recreation and Service Building, Ohio Drive, N. W. b7C

Entry to Department of Agriculture is normally made from Independence Avenue opposite the Washington Monument grounds. This stop is made infrequently and, depending upon the scope of the demonstration, if we have mail on August 28 this stop will not be made.

Stops at Treasury, the White House and the Executive Office Building are normally made by entry from E Street on the Elipse. An attempt will be made to service these stops by having a courier walk in from Pennsylvania Avenue unless the demonstration spreads to Pennsylvania Avenue; in which event, these stops will be cancelled except in case of an emergency.

Some delay is anticipated due to traffic congestion on the fringes of the demonstration area; however, all deliveries outside the immediate demonstration area will be attempted where security of the mail is not in danger.

Memo L. E. Short to Mr. Tavel
Re: March On Washington
August 28, 1963

The regular station wagon run to the Riddell Building will be operated on the usual schedule, however, the route will be changed to take it out of the demonstration area. Because of the expected rerouting of traffic on Constitution and Independence Avenue to Pennsylvania Avenue and K Street, some delays are expected.

The regular runs to the Annex, the Identification Building and Washington Field Office will not be changed unless the demonstration moves into the Federal Triangle and Capitol Hill. If this occurs, the runs will be cancelled or curtailed and specials only will be handled.

The Courier Service plans to place an additional male employee on each of the station wagon runs in the interest of security.

RECOMMENDATION:

For information.

Press Information

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 7, 1963, page 17, contained an article relating to the March on Washington. This article reported that the major television networks are making plans to give nation-wide coverage to the March on August 28, 1963. u

The article reported that NBC has scheduled two half hour special reports at 2 PM and 4:30 PM, August 28, 1963, and that a 45 minute report will be broadcast at 11:15 PM on this date. Further, that CBS has tentatively booked an hour long "news extra" on the event for 7:30 PM on August 28, 1963. The article further reported that ABC will originate its "Ron Cochran and the News" program from WDC on the evening of August 28, 1963. The article further reported that ABC will devote its September 1, 1963, program, a part of five continuous Sunday programs on civil rights, to a half hour analysis of the March on Washington. u

The article advised that news executives of the three major networks indicated that their planning of the coverage of the March on Washington was still fairly tentative because many aspects of the event are still undetermined. The article indicated that main focal points will be the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial. u

The "New York Times" issue of August 9, 1963, page 10, reported that a benefit stage performance to help finance the March on Washington will be held at the Apollo Theater, 125th Street, New York City, on August 23, 1963. The article reported that A. Philip Randolph, Chairman of the March on Washington Committee, had reported on August 8, 1963, that the cost of the March would exceed $65,000.00; that part of this cost figure would include transportation for unemployed persons who will visit WDC. The article stated that $20,000.00 had already been raised through contributions. u

The "New York Post" issue of August 9, 1963, page 6, contained an article relating to the March on Washington benefit to be held at the Apollo Theater, New York City, on August 23, 1963. The article advised that the March on Washington Committee hopes to raise at least $6,000.00 through the benefit, and that volunteer entertainers who will appear include Paul Newman, Sidney Poitier, Joanne Woodward, Tony Bennett, Art Blakey, Ossie Davis, Cozy Cole, Ruby Dee, Billy Eckstine, the Golden Chords, Johnny Hartman, Colman Hawkins, Ahmad Jamal, Quincy Jones, Moms Mabley, Thelonius Monk, Herbie Mann, Carmen Mac Rae, Cecil Payne, Charlie Shavers, David Thorne, Teri Thornton, Lambert, Hendricks and Bavan, Little Stevie Wonder, and a number of disc jockeys who will emcee the show. u

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 11, 1963, page 8, contained an article reporting that the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York will participate in the March on Washington on August 28, 1963, through its Catholic Interracial Council (CIC). The article stated that the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York, joining the Protestant National Council of Churches, made public, through the Most Reverend John J. Maguire, Vicar General of the Archdiocese, a letter to be read at all the masses in all parishes in the ten county Archdiocese of New York. The article stated that the letter is an appeal to Catholics to support the March. U

This article further reported that the Reverend Gerald J. Ryan of the St. Anthony Church of Padua, 832 East 166th Street, Bronx, New York, would send two busloads of his parishioners; that Reverend John La Farge, S.J., Associate Editor of "America", the magazine, and a co-founder of the CIC, would visit WDC beginning August 27, 1963, accompanied by the Reverend Philip Hurley, S.J., Chaplain of the CIC. U

The article reported also that the Reverend Doctor Robert W. Spike of the United Church of Christ, who is an Executive Director of the National Council's Commission on Religion and Race, had advised that the commission had been working with the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice and the American Jewish Congress on national plans for the demonstration. U

This article further reported that a delegation of 15 Bronx, New York, New York State legislators and two New York City Councilmen, according to an announcement made by Bronx County Democratic leader Charles A. Buckley, would join the March on Washington. U

The August 13, 1963, issue of the "New York Times" page 1, contained an article which reported that Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City, had stated on August 12, 1963, that any city employees who wanted to join the March on Washington, August 28, 1963, would probably be able to get the day off. Further, that he thought that city employees who requested time off to participate in the demonstration should be excused from work, such as are city employees who participate in the St. Patrick's Day parade and the Columbus Day parade. The article noted that on these two days, employees who are excused get the day off with pay. U

On August 9, 1963, the "New York News", on page 14, contained a short article on the March on Washington which estimated that approximately 25,000 from New York City will participate in the event at WDC. The article stated that at least six special trains and 200 buses would be utilized for New York City visitors to WDC and that 14 special trains and approximately 2,000 buses would be involved in transporting people from all areas of the country to WDC on August 28, 1963. MARCH ON WASHINGTON

An article in the Cleveland "Plain Dealer," daily Cleveland, Ohio, newspaper, on August 12, 1963, stated that the United Freedom Movement is seeking 363 "responsible citizens with a sincere interest in civil rights" to make a trip to Washington, D. C., for the August 28, 1963, demonstration.

It is noted that the United Freedom Movement is an amalgamation of over thirty organizations in the Cleveland area interested in civil rights and desegregation matters. Clarence H. Holmes, President of the Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), is head of the United Freedom Movement, and Harold B. Williams, Executive Secretary of the Cleveland NAACP, is coordinator of the Movement.

According to the article, officials of the United Freedom Movement announced that troublemakers would be screened out and would not be allowed to make reservations.

The article also stated that reservations could be made at the local NAACP office and that contributions were being solicited to pay the fare of jobless Negroes who would be part of a delegation of the unemployed to present a bill of particulars at the White House.

The article further reflected that no children under fourteen years of age will be permitted to go, and the use of private automobiles is being discouraged because of congestion on the highways.

The United Freedom Movement announced that seven buses will be chartered and each will carry a volunteer doctor and nurse. In addition to the buses, which will carry 300 persons, a chartered plane will take 63 passengers to the rally. The bus fare for the trip was quoted as $15 and the plane fare as $40.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963

The article stated that the buses will leave Cleveland at 7:00 PM on August 27, 1963, and will leave Washington as soon as the demonstration is over on August 28, 1963.

On the same date, another article in the Cleveland "Plain Dealer," reflected that the Cleveland chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) plans to send a total of 78 persons on two chartered buses to the August 28, 1963, demonstration. The article reflected that the buses will leave Cleveland at 12:00 midnight on August 27, 1963.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

An article in the August 12, 1963, issue of the "Chronicle-Telegram," an Elyria, Ohio, daily newspaper, reflected that the Reverend George Short, President of the Elyria chapter of the NAACP, announced that his group would hire a bus to take Elyrians to Washington for the march on August 28, 1963.

11 AUG 19 1963

An article in the 8/8/63, edition of the "Buffalo Evening News", a daily newspaper published at Buffalo, N.Y., reflects that according to a statement by RAPHAEL DU BARD, Regional Director of the NAACP, about 100 Buffalo-area residents are expected to take part in the 8/28/63, civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C.

Mr. DU BARD said arrangements have been made to charter three buses to take the group. More buses may be needed, he said, "if the other eight chapters in my region send delegations."

The buses are expected to leave here about midnight on Aug. 27 and arrive in Washington in time for the demonstrations. They will return from Washington the same day.

SUMMARY OF PARTICIPANTS

The August 6, 1963, edition of "The Tulsa Tribune", a daily newspaper published at Tulsa, Oklahoma, reflected an article which stated that Reverend Ben Hill, president of the Tulsa NAACP, announced that some 80 Tulsa Negroes plan a trip to Washington, D.C., in two chartered buses in order to take part in the scheduled demonstration in Washington on August 28, 1963. One bus will be occupied by adult Negroes, about one-third of whom will be unemployed, and the second bus will be occupied by Negro teen-agers and young adults who are members of the Youth Council of the Tulsa NAACP. 144A

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

[REDACTED] b7c b7d

On August 14, 1963, The Houston Post carried a report of the NAACP meeting held on the evening of August 13, 1963, at Houston. This article stated Reverend McCardell announced plans were still in effect to send 100 persons from Houston to the march on Washington on August 28, 1963, and that another group of Houston Negroes was planning to participate in a similar demonstration in Austin, Texas, on the same date. In his statement to reporters, McCardell stated "We feel like we should do something. In Houston we haven't done much. We are rather complacent and cold, suffering from apathy and indifference. It's time to stand up and let other Americans know we're in there fighting for freedom."

In this article it was reported that the NAACP had around twenty-five volunteers for the Washington trip and hoped to have 100 by Sunday, August 18, 1963. It was reported the Houston group would proceed from Houston by chartered buses on August 26, 1963, and would leave Washington for return to Houston on the night of August 28, 1963. This article reported there were approximately forty persons present at the NAACP meeting at Houston on August 13, 1963.

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE, formerly known as the Labor-Negro Vanguard Party

In a press release dated November 18, 1961, the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD PARTY (LNVP) stated:

"The growing influence of the irredentist forces upon the policies of our nation as indicated by the alarming drift towards war and the outlawing of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) has accentuated the need for all radical, progressive and liberal forces to unite in a common party."

In a leaflet entitled "Call to Progressive Minded America" issued by the LNVP, its founding convention was scheduled for November 25, 1961, in New York City. The aims and purposes were listed as:

1. For the resurgence of the American Labor Movement.
 2. For the winning of the struggle for Negro rights.
 3. For an end of the cold war.
 4. For economic security and higher mass living standards.
 5. For the end of the exploitation of man by man.

In view of the above, the Oklahoma City Office feels the information in the news article stating that 400 to 500 Oklahomans would attend the Washington demonstration may be exaggerated. Accordingly, and since news article lacks specific information, a synopsis of groups to attend with tabular headings will not be set forth in this communication. An attempt will be made to clarify this information, however.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS -
PARTICIPANT SUMMARY SUPPLEMENT

The August 14, 1963, edition of "The Daily Oklahoman", a daily newspaper published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflects an article with dateline Washington entitled, "500 From State to Join in March".

The article states, in part, as follows:

Four hundred to 500 Oklahomans, including 100 teen-agers, will participate in a huge civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C., August 28, 1963. ~~Jake Simmons, Jr.~~, Oklahoma president of the NAACP (who resides at Muskogee, Oklahoma) said Tuesday that the Oklahomans will come in chartered buses and they will probably not stay overnight.

Simmons, whose son, Don, is an employee of Oklahoma Senator J. Howard Edmondson, set up a conference with Clarence Mitchell, national director of the NAACP.

Simmons said the ~~Oklahoma City~~ Youth Group of the NAACP will be led by Clara Luper and ~~Melvin Porter~~. Simmons estimated the average age of the youth demonstrators at 13. They will range from elementary school children through the college level, he said. Simmons indicated a number of white people from Oklahoma would attend.

Also leading the Oklahoma delegation will be Reverend ~~Ben Hill~~, president of the Tulsa, Oklahoma, NAACP, and Amos T. Hall, grand master of the Prince Hall Masonic Lodge, which will send a bus load of demonstrators.

Simmons said the demonstration will be a "vigorous protest against racial discrimination and segregation, but it will be orderly and I don't anticipate any trouble." He indicated that his state organization is in the process of contacting all members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation on behalf of the president's civil rights program in Congress.

500 From State To Join in March

Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Four hundred to 500 Oklahomans, including 100 teen-agers, will participate in a huge civil rights demonstration here August 28.

Jake Simmons jr., Muskogee, Oklahoma president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), said Tuesday that the Sooners will come in chartered buses. They will probably not stay overnight.

Civil rights leaders are anticipating a crowd of as many as 150,000 from all parts of the country.

The purpose of the march, which will begin near the White House and terminate at the Lincoln Memorial, is to dramatize the Negro fight for racial equality.

Simmons, whose son, Don, is an employe of Sen. J. Howard Edmondson, set up a conference with Clarence Mitchell, national director of the NAACP.

Simmons said the Oklahoma City youth group, a junior version of the NAACP, will be led by Miss Clara Luper and attorney Melvin Porter, both Oklahoma City leaders of the organization.

They will swell the total number of Oklahoma demonstrators to nearly 500, he estimated.

Simmons estimated the average age of the youth demonstrators at 13. They range from elementary school children through the college level, he said.

They include a number of white people, Simmons said.

Also leading the Oklahoma delegation will be Rev. Ben Hill, president of the Tulsa NAACP; and Amos T. Hall, grand master of the Prince Hall (Negro) Masonic Lodge, which will send a bus load of demonstrators.

Simmons said the demonstration will be a "vigorous protest against racial discrimination and segregation."

"But it will be orderly and I don't anticipate any trouble," he said.

He said his state organization is in the process of contacting all members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation on behalf of the president's civil rights program in congress.

Simmons said that a controversial section of the bill, which guarantees Negro access to restaurants, movie theaters, hotels, etc., "will determine whether human rights take precedence over property rights."

He indicated he has received no commitments from Oklahoma lawmakers.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963

The July 27, 1963 edition of the "Waterbury Republican", a Waterbury, Connecticut daily newspaper, contains an article on page three captioned, "City Group Plans Protest Participation". This article reveals that a Waterbury, Connecticut delegation planned to participate in the August 28, 1963 civil rights demonstration at Washington, D.C., however, travel plans had not been made.

The article also revealed that the Reverend WILLIAM SLOAN COFFIN, JR., Yale University Chaplain, New Haven, Connecticut, announced that a special train has been chartered to take 600 Negroes and whites from Connecticut to Washington, D.C., in order to participate in the August 28, 1963 demonstration. The train will leave Hartford, Connecticut, with stops at New Haven, Bridgeport, Norwalk and Stamford, Connecticut, the coordinator for the group being Reverend RICHARD BATTLES, JR. from Hartford, Connecticut.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963

[REDACTED] b7d

The August 8, 1963 edition of the "New Britain Herald", a New Britain, Connecticut daily newspaper, on page one, contains an article captioned "40 Local Persons Expected to Join in Washington March". This article revealed that the New Britain Branch, NAACP had chartered a bus for a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. This bus will leave the New Britain Church Street Parkade, New Britain, Connecticut, at 11:00PM, August 27, 1963, and will ultimately depart from Washington, D.C. at midnight on August 28, 1963. It was pointed out that bus reservations could be made by contacting Police Sergeant CLIFFORD WILLIS at the Willis Barber Shop, 127 Hartford Avenue, New Britain, Connecticut, the deadline for reservations being August 20, 1963.

The August 8, 1963 edition of the "Hartford Courant", a Hartford, Connecticut daily newspaper, contained an article which revealed that the Hartford, Connecticut Branch of the NAACP expected to provide between 400 to 500 people from the greater Hartford area to participate in captioned demonstration. Plans were expressed by the NAACP for chartering the train for carrying the contingent to Washington from Connecticut, such train to originate at Hartford, Connecticut, with stops at New Haven, Bridgeport, Stamford and Norwalk, Connecticut, for the purpose of picking up Connecticut demonstrators.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

b7d

The August 8, 1963 edition of the "New Haven Register", a New Haven, Connecticut daily newspaper, on page 32, contained an article which indicated that 150 persons from New Haven, Connecticut were expected to participate in the March on Washington. According to the article, New Haven civil rights groups, the names of which were not specified, would be joined by several fraternal, labor and church organizations. It was revealed that the estimated 150 marchers would be joined by approximately 1,000 other individuals from the State of Connecticut, in order to make the trip to Washington, D.C. It was revealed that the march is being backed by prominent civil rights organizations, including CORE, NAACP, and the National Urban League. Donations and reservations were being sought, the cost per person expected to be $17.00. The article pointed out that reservations or contributions could be sent to the Dixwell Avenue Congregational Church, 100 Dixwell Avenue; the NAACP, 304 Dixwell Avenue; or the New Haven March on Washington Committee, 48 Howe Street, all at New Haven, Connecticut.

The August 10, 1963 issue of the "Hartford Courant", on page six, in article captioned, "Donations Asked for Washington 'Freedom' Train", revealed that donations were being solicited for a special train to transport Hartford, Connecticut residents to Washington, D.C. on August 28, 1963. It was revealed that many ministers in the Hartford area have designated this Sunday as "Freedom Sunday", and have requested that congregations make special offerings for the train which is scheduled to depart Hartford at 1:45AM on August 28, 1963, and will return to Hartford late on the same date. Tickets for the round trip are $10.00 each, and are on sale at the Bethel AME Church, 2003 Main Street, Hartford, Connecticut. It was revealed also that contributions and orders for tickets could be mailed to the Riverside Trust Company, 90 Pearl Street, Hartford, Connecticut, marked for the attention of Vice President LEO J. VEILLEUX.

August 28, 1963

The article pointed out that the Reverend RICHARD A. BATTLES, JR. and the Reverend J. BLANTON SHIELDS, organizers of the Hartford contingent, stated that the march is receiving wide-spread support. It was also stated that interest in the march has been shown by the Most Reverend HENRY J. O'BRIEN, Archbishop of Hartford, the Connecticut Council of Churches and the Greater Hartford Council of Churches.

67d

The "Catholic Transcript", a weekly newspaper published at Hartford, Connecticut, in its issue of August 8, 1963,

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON
August 28, 1963

contained an article which revealed that the Catholic Inter-racial Council of Bridgeport, Connecticut, the Catholic Inter-racial Council of Stamford and Norwalk, Connecticut, and the Men's League of St. Martin de Porres parish at New Haven, Connecticut, would participate in the March on Washington on August 28, 1963. The number of such participants was not specified.

According to the August 9, 1963 issue of the "Norwich Bulletin", a Norwich, Connecticut daily newspaper, LYNWOOD BLAND, JR., President of the New London, Connecticut Chapter, NAACP, has stated that 11 persons in that area have indicated they will participate in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

New York City being picketed by civil rights groups. This article reflects that one Anthony Maynard, age 25, a Negro, who gave his address as "Africa", was arrested and charged with felonious assault for scuffling with a police officer at the construction side of the Downstate Medical Center, 450 Clarkson Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. The scuffling occurred when the police seized four cartons of eggs, apparently for pelting police, according to the article.

The newscast of 6 PM, August 14, 1963, on ABC-TV, Channel 7, New York City, announced the arrest of three non-named pickets at the Downstate Medical Center (above) on that date for disorderly conduct. These three pickets were members of a "White Shirt" organization known as "Precept". The newscast stated the purpose of this organization is to serve as mediator in the civil rights struggle.

For the information of the Bureau, the following appeared in the "Morning Freiheit" of 8/13/63, on page 8, columns 1-2:

Chicago Prepared To Send 25 Hundred People
To March On Washington

JACK KLING

Chicago, - At a conference with representatives of the press, which was held here, it was announced that 2500 people from Chicago would participate in the march for jobs and freedom for the Negro masses, which is being called for August 28th in Washington.

Among the 2500 who will participate in the march there will be about 1,000 unemployed. Their expenses will be covered by their unions and their organizations.

The press conference was held in the offices of the United Packinghouse Workers of America. The speakers at the conference, who reported on the preparations for the march were: Timul Black, Chairman of the Chicago Committee which is directing the preparations for the march; Lawrence Landry, Co-chairman of the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee; and the Reverend Wilbur Daniel, President of the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People of Chicago.

Black said, also, that the 2500 people who will participate in the march on Washington will represent 23 organizations which fight for civil rights.

"The Worker," east coast Communist newspaper, issue of July 21, 1963, in a first-page story by T. R. Bassett, discussed the proposed march on Washington, August 28, 1963. The story reported that southern administrators of the march include Dr. Aaron Henry (Clarksdale, Mississippi), President of Mississippi Conference of NAACP Branches.

The August 10, 1963, issue of the "Memphis World," weekly Memphis, Tennessee, Negro paper, reported that the Memphis, Tennessee, NAACP Chapter had discussed the possibility of chartering a bus for an August 28, 1963, trip to Washington and that the National Office of the NAACP is expecting the Memphis Branch to send 25 to 30 persons to Washington for the demonstrations.

The story stated that if local officials are successful in rounding up enough passengers to charter a bus, the group would leave here a day before the march, arriving in time for the demonstrations, but would not stay in Washington over night.

This same story reported that the Shelby County, Tennessee (Memphis) Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), headed by O. Z. Evers, President, and Joseph McDonald, Secretary, are attempting to organize a group to go to Washington, and that CORE officials have stated they will finance a trip for unemployed but will call on those financially able to pay their own way.

The same article reported that CORE has asked Memphis and Shelby County officials to declare August 28, 1963, as "Freedom Day."

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

The "Commercial Appeal," Memphis, Tennessee, daily newspaper, quoted O. Z. Evers as saying that the National Office of CORE has asked that his group send at least one unemployed person for each four it sends to Washington.

The August 10, 1963, issue of the "Press-Scimitar," Memphis, Tennessee, daily newspaper, reported that Reverend J. T. Freeman, Negro pastor of St. James Baptist Church, Humboldt, Tennessee, and President of Humboldt and Gibson County, Tennessee, Chapter of the NAACP, had stated that a group of 32 from Humboldt, Tennessee, will go to Washington, D. C., August 28, 1963, for a march on Washington "to protest to the President of the U.S. police brutality, segregation in jobs, and public facilities."

MARCH ON WASHINGTON
AUGUST 28, 1963

Freeman had complained of being arrested on August 9, 1963, by two Humboldt policemen, being charged with running a stop sign. He complained that the arresting officers had hit him. He claimed he was calling President Kennedy, United States Attorney General Robert Kennedy, the National Headquarters of the NAACP, and the National Council of Churches for Aid.
